HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT SCOTLAND

Guide to Information Available through our Publication Scheme 2018

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Historic Environment Scotland (HES) is the lead public body for Scotland's historic environment and took up its full powers on 1 October 2015. Legally constituted by the Historic Environment Scotland Act 2014, HES has responsibility for the functions and property, rights, liabilities and obligations of its two predecessor bodies, Historic Scotland and The Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Scotland (RCAHMS). HES is also a registered Scottish Charity (SC045925).
- 1.3 The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (the Act) requires Scottish public authorities to produce and maintain a publication scheme. Authorities are under a legal obligation to:
  - publish the classes of information that they make routinely available
  - tell the public how to access the information and what it might cost
- 1.4 We have adopted the Scottish Information Commissioners Model Publication Scheme 2018. You can see this scheme on our website at Publication Scheme or by contacting us at the address below.
- 1.5 The purpose of this Guide to Information is to:
  - allow the public to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class
  - state what charges may be applied
  - explain how to find the information easily
  - provide contact details for enquiries and to get help with accessing the information
  - explain how to request information we hold that has not been published

2. Availability and formats

2.1 The information we publish through the model scheme is, wherever possible, available on our website. We offer alternative arrangements for people who do not want to, or cannot, access the information online or by inspection at our premises. For example, we can usually arrange to send information to you in paper copy (although there may be a charge for this).

3. Exempt information

- 3.1 We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland's freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal or commercial information), we will remove or redact the information before publication and explain why.
- 3.2 Sometimes people make FOI and EIR requests for access to information in our collections. These requests are nearly always exempt under section 25 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act or regulation 6(1)(b) of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations, because this information is already in the public domain. If your request is for information from our collections rather than for information about HES as an organisation, please consult the resources section on our websites (listed under Class 2).

4. Copyright

- 4.1 Because of our role as a national collection and our role in managing properties and their associated collections on behalf of Scottish Ministers, it is important to note that copyright applies to distinct kinds of information in a different ways
  - our own corporate information that is, information that we produce about our business or in the course of our business
  - material in our physical and digital archive (e.g. books, manuscripts, photographs, drawings)
- 4.2 Where we hold the copyright you can copy or reproduce HES corporate information reports, statistics, policies and procedures, corporate correspondence etc provided that:
  - it is copied or reproduced accurately
  - it is not used in a misleading context, and
  - the source of the material is identified
- 4.3 Authorisation to re-use copyright material not owned by HES should be sought from the copyright holders concerned. Copyright restrictions are likely to apply to material in our archives.

5. Charges

- 5.1 This section explains when we may make a charge for our publications and how any charge will be calculated.
- 5.2 You do not have to pay for:
  - any information downloaded from our website
  - a single copy of any corporate document
  - information sent in electronic format as an email attachment
  - copies of any corporate publications which are already printed and available for free

- 5.3 You may have to pay for:
  - printing or photocopying costs of 10p per page (unless your request is for fewer than 50 pages or if it is a single document)
  - information provided on CD-ROM (which will be charged at 50p per disc)
  - postage or other delivery (Royal Mail First Class)
- 5.4 You will have to pay for:
  - any commercial publications falling under Class 8 of this scheme. These items are offered for sale through retail outlets and their price reflects a market value which may include the cost of production
  - reprographic costs for items from our national collections
- 5.5 We will always tell you what the cost is before providing the information to you.
