

HERITAGE EDUCATION – SCHOOL VISITS TRAVEL SUBSIDY

What is the Travel Subsidy for?

The Scottish Government's heritage education travel subsidy is offered to schools throughout Scotland to encourage visits to heritage sites of national importance in support of Curriculum for Excellence. It provides financial assistance with transport costs between the school and the chosen site for either teacher-led visits or for groups taking part in facilitated education programmes.

Where can I go?

- Any Historic Environment Scotland site – staffed or unstaffed. A full list of sites across Scotland, from prehistoric sites to abbeys and castles can be found at historicenvironment.scot
- The following National Trust for Scotland sites: Bannockburn Heritage Centre, Culloden Battlefield, Robert Burns Birthplace Museum – nts.org.uk
- David Livingstone Birthplace david-livingstone-birthplace.org
- New Lanark World Heritage Site – newlanark.org

When can I travel?

The subsidy is available all year round for the sites listed above.

How much can I claim?

75% of transportation costs, up to a maximum of £250 will be covered.

How do I apply?

- Make a booking by contacting the site/organisation you wish to visit
- Obtain a quote from your bus company for the travel costs
- Complete the travel subsidy application form below and return it to learning@hes.scot or susanne.simpson@hes.scot

How will I receive the subsidy?

After your visit, send a copy of the paid bus company invoice to learning@hes.scot or susanne.simpson@hes.scot.

75% of the total cost up to a maximum of £250 will be reimbursed to the school within 30 days of receipt of the invoice.
