EVENT PROGRAMME

GREAT HALL

Meet the Author	11am, 1pm & 3pm	Join author Theresa Breslin for a reading from her treasury of dragon myths and legends, Dragon Tales . Theresa will be in the Great Hall throughout the day, ready for a chat and to sign your copies of any of her books!
Puppet Show	11.30am, 1.30pm & 3.30pm	The King has invited all the unicorns and their friends in the land to come to a party at the castle. Come along and help them get ready.
Jester Detector	12pm, 2pm & 4pm	Meet Queen's jester, the Jester Detector, at the doors of the Great Hall. She is on a mission to find the missing unicorn and dragon ducks. Join her on the hunt, how many can you spot?

ON THROUGHOUT THE DAY

CHAPEL ROYAL

Heraldic Crafts	Even the bravest knights need a shield! Design your own coat of arms. Learn all about the symbols of Scottish heraldry.
The Herald's Tale	Meet the medieval royal herald. Hear about the Lord Lyon, King of Arms, who looks after Scottish coats of arms and the Heraldry Society of Scotland, which helps people use them today.
Pop-up Shop	Head over to the pop-up shop for all things unicorn and friends including Theresa's books! What gifts and treats will you take home?

ROYAL PALACE

Unicorn Hunt	Learn how to look for unicorns and other mythical beasts in the wild. Discover all the hints and tips for tracking some of Scotland's most mythical creatures.
Puppet Making	Learn about the mythical beasts of Scotland and make your own puppet beast.

QUEEN ANNE GARDENS

Visit our Unicorns	Princess and Pumpkin will be in the garden all day. Pop along, chat to our Unicorn Guardians and give the Unicorns a wave.
Roving Musicians	Find the musicians and tap your feet to the lively music of Cornucopia and friends. Be entertained as the musicians wander the castle grounds with their colourful characters inspired by
